President's Message

I have great pleasure in introducing Jitendra Chauhan College of Law, which is one of the premier Educational Institutions run by Shri Vile Parle Kelavani Mandal (SVKM) to you. The College was set up in the year 1977 and has 47 years history of achievements and growth in terms of rendering quality education and giving out to the Society alumni who have made their mark amongst the legal fraternity. We have provided modern infrastructure, a well-equipped library with modern facilities and an environment congenial for high levels of academic activity. We have tried to attract best full-time and visiting faculties and get the participation and contributions of legal luminaries for not only the curricular activities, but also for nurturing the climate of research, creativity and scholastic activities. Innovative academic pedagogies in terms of co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and acquisition of practical knowledge through internships, workshops, moot courts are liberally promoted and supported by SVKM Management. All these have made Jitendra Chauhan College of Law one of the leading law colleges not only in Mumbai but also in the country.

With best regards and warm wishes.

Mentor's Desk

Shri Shalin R. Divatia
Honorary Jt. Secretary, SVKM and
Institute Mentor, JCCL

Jitendra Chauhan College of Law has steadfastly remained committed to meeting the growing demands of the rapidly changing legal and professional domain and contributing to the advancement of law, legal institutions and society at large, true to the vision of the college. With a history of providing quality legal education spanning over four decades, the faculty and students focus not just on academics but reach out in a meaningful manner to the deserving in society through several activities. This leads to a well-rounded education for the student and contributes to the society through the development of a responsible citizen. The education of the students is enhanced through the suitable use of technology at JCCL.

It is the aim of the college to provide learners and all associated with the college with all the tools, both technological and professional, so that they can continue to learn and grow in their respective careers even after their education at the college comes to an end.

It is with this aim in mind that the college ensures that students and faculties are provided with the best infrastructure and an environment to do research work and participate in moot court competitions. Students from the college have contributed in the field of legal research and won prizes in various moot court competitions. The college encourages practical learning through internship opportunities and guest lectures from practicing advocates and renowned academicians.

I hope that the faculty and staff shall continue to contribute towards the legal field and go ahead to achieve many more impressive accolades.

I would like to convey my best wishes to the faculties and students as they move ahead with the changing paradigms of the legal professional education.

With best regards and warm wishes.

Principal's Address

I am delighted to introduce Jitendra Chauhan College of Law (JCCL) to you and encourage you to look up our courses, faculty and culture.

JCCL was founded in 1977, to offer comprehensive education enabling students to unlock a world of multiple opportunities. The course structure along with co-curricular activities has been tailored to educate, engage, challenge and mentor students. We are dynamic and technically savvy in our teaching methodology, which helps us impact our students and communities.

JCCL prides itself on public service opportunities that students and faculty members have chosen to be associated with over the years. Our innovative and collaborative spirit has helped us leverage our strengths and made our institution sustainable in this age of cut-throat competition.

JCCL is special because of its students from varied professional backgrounds and talented and energetic community of law professors, legal researchers, practicing advocates and senior counsel. We aim to deliver value in legal education, while ensuring that students get high-quality, affordable education.

We stress on academic and co-curricular rigor to help students acquire hands-on experience, encouraging them to apply legal principles and theory to real-world legal problems. We adopt a challenging and collegial learning environment by choosing highly qualified faculty that is committed to responding to the learning needs of students, both in and out of the classroom. Our graduates not only act as corporate counsel, but also run small and large businesses, advise business leaders, become appointed officials and law professors.

Workshops and seminars conducted in college are dedicated to help you succeed in your choice of career. We offer a vibrant community that wants to provide the finest educational experience, while also acting as an extensive support system once you graduate from law school. We are focused on building and strengthening connections with our alumni to help our students with the hand-holding they may need. Our faculty's scholarly work offers similar guidance both inside and outside the college campus. We, at JCCL, channelize youth energy to achieve success of students in future.

Our legacy of achievement helps us thrive in a highly-competitive, legal marketplace. Our holistic training and teaching-learning environment has been able to create skilled graduates who take on challenges in corporate boardrooms and pass the bar exam to become effective, ethical lawyers.

We appreciate your interest and engagement with JCCL. We shall ensure that you will be proud to be a student of JCCL.

I will be happy to assist you on your journey to become a gainfully employed lawyer with a wealth of knowledge and experience. If you have any questions about JCCL that are not answered, I would encourage you to talk to our faculty and students or contact us directly. You will notice our commitment towards you.

I look forward to meeting you!

About SVKM

Shri Vile Parle Kelavani Mandal (SVKM) is a Public Charitable Trust registered under the Society's Registration Act, 1860 and Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950. From its humble beginnings in 1934, when it took over the Rashtriya Shala, a school established in 1921 in the wake of the national movement, the Mandal expanded its activity by opening institutes for various faculties such as Arts, Science, Commerce, Law, Engineering (Diploma & Degree), Pharmacy, Architecture, and Management Studies. Today, the Mandal has grown into a big educational complex imparting high-level education in 39 Schools & Colleges. The Mandal received a handsome donation from Shri Narottam Chauhan for the establishment of the Law College - Jitendra Chauhan College of Law" (JCCL), named after Shri Narottam Chauhan's son, Late Shri Jitendra Chauhan and the college started functioning from 1977.

Jitendra Chauhan College of Law is one of the premier Educational Institutions run by Shri Vile Parle Kelavani Mandal (SVKM). The college has a history of more than four decades of achievements and growth in terms of rendering quality education. It provides modern infrastructure, a well-equipped library with modern facilities and an environment congenial for high levels of academic activity.

It tries to attract best teaching faculties and also get the participation and contributions of legal luminaries for not only the curricular activities, but also for nurturing the climate of research, creativity and scholastic activities. It also emphasises on innovative academic pedagogies through co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and acquisition of practical knowledge through internships, workshops, moot courts, etc. The college boasts of state of art infrastructure facilities provided by its management viz. SVKM.

Vision

To meet the growing demands of the rapidly changing legal and professional domain and contributing to the advancement law, legal institutions and society at large.

Mission

The fundamental mission of JCCL is to provide students with knowledge, skills, and ethical values needed for a career in the law. For LL.B. Admission is purely on the basis of State Common Entrance Test, MAH-Law CET (3 Years). Details of MAH-LAW CET (3 years) are available on http://www.dhepune.gov.in and http://www.llb3cap24.mahacet.org

For LL.M. CET is conducted by University of Mumbai.

A transparent admission procedure is followed, strictly based on standard norms. Any modification in admission guidelines will be displayed on the college notice board at the time of admission. Neither the management nor the college accepts any donation or capitation fee for admission to any course offered by the college. The public is cautioned against falling prey to any misleading information regarding admission in college with respect to donations.

Age of Admission

As per Notification by State CET Cell vide their Letter No. CET-CELL/LLB-3/LLB-5-2016/AGE- RELAXATION/2016/533 dated 17th October, 2016, admissions to candidates who do not fulfill the age criteria prescribed by the Bar Council of India will be subject to the outcome of the Writ Petition No. 27289/2016 and other similar petitions pending in the Hon. High Court at Mumbai.

Minority Students

Minority seats shall be allotted to the candidates of the State belonging to the minority community to which the institution belongs by virtue of merit or in Open Category as per their Inter-Se-Merit if the seat reserved for them are not available at their merit.

[Government of Maharashtra Gazette No. MAHBIL/2009/37831 dated 11th March, 2016.]

Minimum Marks in Qualifying Examination for Admission

"Bar Council of India may from time to time, stipulate the minimum percentage of marks not below 45 % of the total marks in case of General Category applicants to be obtained for the qualifying examination, degree course in any discipline for three years LL.B. course, for the purpose of applying for and getting admitted into a Law Degree Program of any recognized University in either of the streams.

Merit of CET of University of Mumbai for LL.M. Entrance.

Provided that such minimum qualifying marks shall not automatically entitle a person to get admission into an institution but only shall entitle the person concerned to fulfill other institutional criteria notified by the institution concerned or by the Government concerned from time to time to apply for admission."
Ref : (Rule7, Rules of Legal Education 2008, Bar Council of India).

Educational Qualification for Maharashtra State Candidates

The candidate should be a graduate and or post-graduate in any faculty/discipline or knowledge of any University in Maharashtra established by an Act of Parliament or by the State Legislature or an equivalent National Institution recognized as a Deemed-to-be University or Foreign University recognized as equivalent to the status of an Indian University by an Authority competent to declare equivalence, with minimum 45 % Marks in aggregate for Open Category candidates (i.e. 45 % marks for all the parts of the Degree Examination taken together. (Ref.: Bar Council of India-2008: Part V-5(a))

The candidate who has passed the 3-year undergraduate degree and or post-graduate degree from university after pursing studies in the educational pattern of 10+2+3 and/or 10+2+3+2/3 years with regular studies at Secondary (SSC) and Higher Secondary (HSC) schooling are eligible for admission to LL.B.-3 – CET-2024 provided they have completed their graduation and / or post-graduation through regular mode/open or distance mode.

Outside Maharashtra University Graduates/Post-Graduates

Candidates from outside Maharashtra Universities will be considered as open category candidates irrespective of their caste/category and criteria applicable to open category candidates will be applicable to them.

Candidates who are appearing for the qualifying examination from the academic year 2023-2024 are also eligible to apply for MAH-LL.B.-3 - CET-2024 / Entrance Examination. Such candidates will become eligible for admission only if they produce marks memo/ degree certificate of the qualifying examination while filling in the form for CAP only if they score minimum required percentage of aggregate marks in the qualifying examination.

Those passed qualifying Exam prior to 2023 are eligible to apply.
Aggregate marks means the grand total of marks obtained by the candidate at the certifi-cate/diploma/degree in all semesters/years on which the class/grade is awarded by the Board/ University.

In case the candidates are awarded grade/s/CGPA instead of marks, the conversion of grade/s, CGPA to percentage of marks would be based on the formula/procedure certified by the board/ university/ institution from where the candidate has obtained the Bachelor's Degree. The candidate will have to bring the necessary proof to that effect from the board/ university/ institution.

If the grades of all semesters/years are taken into consideration for awarding grade in certificate/ diploma/degree, the same is to be considered and noted by the candidate while filling in the form. It will be obligatory on the part of the candidate to bring grade to percentage certificate & vice versa from the board/university/ institution.

The percentage of marks shall be calculated by rounding off to two places after decimal.

Refer to www.dhepune.gov.in for the information brochure for On-Line CET for seeking admission to First Year of three-year degree Course leading to LL.B. (Regular- Full Time Course 2023- 2024).

Prohibition to Register for Two Regular Courses of Study

No student shall be allowed to simultaneously register for a law degree program with any other graduate or post-graduate regular course run by the same or any other University or an Institute for academic or professional learning; excepting in the integrated programme of the same institute.

Provided that, any short period, part-time certificate course in language, computer science or computer application of an institute or any course run by a centre for distance learning of a University, however, shall be excepted.
[Ref: (Rule6, Rules of Legal Education 2008, Bar Council of India)].

All admissions are subject to the approval of the University of Mumbai and ARA (Admission Regulatory Authority)

Placement Overview

The changing corporate environment has brought into focus new perspectives of law as a career. Today, law provides multiple options to the students in corporate houses, law firms, NGOs, courts (litigation) and regulatory bodies. The corporate world has its measurable share in the recruitment of law graduates. The expectations of the corporate world are very high and keeping this in mind the Placement Cell was formed to bridge the gap between the students and the corporate world. Jitendra Chauhan College of Law has a Placement Cell comprising the placement executive, the trainer, the faculty and student coordinators. The Placement Cell helps in providing opportunities for part time and full-time jobs in reputed organizations to eligible students. In the past, some of the renowned business houses and law firms have recruited students from campus. In addition to final placements, the college actively encourages students to take up internships during summer and winter break with regulatory bodies, corporates and law firms.

The Training and Placement Cell of Jitendra Chauhan College of Law handles campus placements and internship for LL.B. graduating students. It organizes pre-placement talks, writ-ten tests, interviews and group discussions and moot court events that help students to grow and gather practical knowledge. It also provides opportunities for part time and full-time jobs in reputed organizations.

The prime objective of the training and placement cell is to confirm internships and placements under reputed firms/organizations and help the students, acquire theoretical and practical knowledge simultaneously.

This institution invites companies/firms to the campus to interact with students in an open and friendly environment, thereby facilitating better student engagement, allowing their initiation into the corporate world with greater clarity of purpose.

Objectives

- To organize campus interviews for final year students with industries, law firms, organizations.
- To prepare students to face campus interviews by arranging training, personal interviews, group
- discussions through professional trainers.
- To provide requisite training to students in soft skills.

Internships

Internship is an integral part of the curriculum for LL.B. students. It is a great learning platform for our students and goes a long way in shaping the learning obtained in the classroom. This experience is of immense use in familiarizing students with the working of the law firm/ corporate houses.

The internship is available for all three years; duration is from 4 to 6 weeks. It is not only a window to the corporate world, but also a relationship-building tool for Jitendra Chauhan College of Law. It allows the firms to judge the talent of our students, thereby strengthening the possibility of final placements.

Soft Skills Training

At Jitendra Chauhan College of Law, emphasis is placed on the holistic development of students, thereby helping them gain the necessary skills for their professional career. The soft skills training provided to students assist them in identifying and achieving their personal potential.

To make the student corporate-ready, the first year focuses on laying a foundation in language (English). The second year focuses on self-management and people skills, which include programs on personality development, presentation skills, goal setting, confidence building, conflict management, inter-personal skills, negotiation skills, team building and decision making.
